AUCTIO

READER.

In a great measure, deseated the honest Design of those sew that are fair and just. For the Reader having frequently been imposed on, by such Specious Promises of Rareties and Curiolities, grows jealous of such vain Representations, and expects nothing the more in the Catalogue, for any thing he finds in the Advertisement to the Reader: And that is what I desire the Reader to do in this Case. I only invite him to read the Catalogue, where, I doubt not, he will find a great Number of Choice and Well-collected Books, in Divinity, History, Philology, Physick, &c. in the Oriental Languages; as well as Greek and Latin, of the best Editions, and the most Curious and Scarce Prints; with a good Collection of French, Italian, and English Books, besides the Industrious Rushworth's Famous Collection of Tracts and Pamphlets, Bound as well as Stitch'd.

The Remaining Part of this Catalogue, from Page 68 near Printed, will be fuddenly distributed, viz. The English, Libri Omissi, and Manuscripts.

Commissions may be sent to

John Bullord.
